

David's Death Story

1 Kings 2:1-12

Father's Blessing - two men & crown - Let me tell you about the day King David blessed Solomon as Israel's new king.

Moses' Message - path, prophet, waves - David was about to depart, so he gave final instructions to his son. He charged Solomon to embrace Moses' message about obedience: seek God, listen to his voice, and fulfill his will.

Life & Death - king, sword, table, bread, cup - David gave Solomon life and death assignments: to judge and destroy violent men, but honor and care for faithful men as family.

Dedicated Kingdom - two crowns & cloud - God established David's kingdom despite all of his failures. God kept all his covenant promises to David. Many generations later, God sent Jesus through David's family to save the world.
