

Praise/Worship

focused attention on our Abba Father, celebrating who he is and what he does for us; sing, exalt, adore, glorify

Steadfast Goodness

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made. All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your saints shall bless you! (Psalm 145:8-10 ESV)

King David Dances (2 Samuel 6)

Jesus' Holy Spirit invites us to shift focus from ourselves onto our Heavenly Father. Pure adoration of God is a great challenge for all of us, because we perpetually struggle against a self-centered perspective as well as enduring much suffering throughout our lifetimes. King David was not afraid to dance wildly in front of the crowds who gathered to welcome Yahweh's Covenant Ark to Jerusalem. And like David, we are called to praise the LORD and glorify his name regardless of how we feel or what others think of us. Be free, brothers and sisters, to praise the One who created, rescued, and indwells us.

Discipleship & Prayer

- How do I worship? Where do I feel close to my God?
- How can I praise God morning, afternoon, and night?
- Holy Spirit, help me worship with a grateful heart.
